

Castor Maritime Inc. Announces the Sale of the M/V Magic Argo for $15.75 Million with an Expected Net Gain of $3.0 Million and the Termination of the Sale of the *M/V Magic Moon

Limassol, Cyprus, September 26, 2023 – Castor Maritime Inc. (NASDAQ: CTRM), (“Castor” or the “Company”), a diversified global shipping company, announces that on September 22, 2023, the Company entered into an agreement with an unaffiliated third party for the sale of the M/V Magic Argo, a 2009-built Kamsarmax bulk carrier, for a price of $15.75 million. The vessel is expected to be delivered to her new owners during the fourth quarter of 2023.

The Company expects to record during the fourth quarter of 2023 a net gain of approximately $3.0 million, excluding any transaction-related costs.

The Company also announces that the previously announced sale of the M/V Magic Moon was terminated following the buyer’s failure to take delivery of the vessel. Accordingly, the Company will retain the vessel and not receive its purchase price of $13.95 million, that would have incorporated a net gain before transaction costs of $5.3 million. The Company is seeking appropriate compensation pursuant to the terms of the Memorandum of Agreement for this sale.

Cautionary Statement Regarding Forward-Looking Statements

Matters discussed in this press release may constitute forward-looking statements. We intend such forward-looking statements to be covered by the safe harbor provisions for forward-looking statements contained in Section 27A of the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the “Securities Act”) and Section 21E of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as amended (the “Exchange Act”). Forward-looking statements include statements concerning plans, objectives, goals, strategies, future events or performance, and underlying assumptions and other statements, which are other than statements of historical facts. We are including this cautionary statement in connection with this safe harbor legislation. The words “believe”, “anticipate”, “intend”, “estimate”, “forecast”, “project”, “plan”, “potential”, “will”, “may”, “should”, “expect”, “pending” and similar expressions identify forward-looking statements. The forward-looking statements in this press release are based upon various assumptions, many of which are based, in turn, upon further assumptions, including without limitation, our management’s examination of current or historical operating trends, data contained in our records and other data available from third parties. Although we believe that these assumptions were reasonable when made, because these assumptions are inherently subject to significant uncertainties and contingencies which are difficult or impossible to predict and are beyond our control, we cannot assure you that we will achieve or accomplish these forward-looking statements, including these expectations, beliefs or projections. We undertake no obligation to update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. In addition to these important factors, other important factors that, in our view, could cause actual results to differ materially from those discussed in the forward-looking statements include factors and uncertainties related to the Company’s and its counterparty’s ability to consummate the transaction discussed herein or the occurrence of any event, change or other circumstance that could cause us to record a different net gain than expected on the sale of the M/V Magic Argo, factors and uncertainties in connection with the effects of the Company’s spin-off transaction or any similar transaction, our business strategy, dry bulk and tanker market conditions and trends, the rapid growth of our fleet, the consummation of any sale of any of our vessels, our relationships with our current and future service providers and customers, our ability to borrow under existing or future debt agreements or to refinance our debt on favorable terms and our ability to comply with the covenants contained therein, our continued ability to enter into time or voyage charters with existing and new customers and to re-charter our vessels upon the expiry of the existing charters, changes in our operating and capitalized expenses, our ability to fund future capital expenditures and investments in the acquisition and refurbishment of our vessels, instances of off-hire, future sales of our securities in the public market and our ability to maintain compliance with applicable listing standards, volatility in our share price, potential conflicts of interest involving members of our board of directors, senior management and certain of our service providers that are related parties, general domestic and international political conditions or events (including “trade wars”, global public health threats and major outbreaks of disease), existing or future disputes, proceedings or litigation, including the outcome or costs associated with the Company’s efforts to recover compensation and damages in relation to the terminated sale of the M/V Magic Moon (as discussed herein), changes in seaborne and other transportation, changes in governmental rules and regulations or actions taken by regulatory authorities, and the impact of adverse weather and natural disasters. Please see our filings with the Securities and Exchange Commission for a more complete discussion of these and other risks and uncertainties. The information set forth herein speaks only as of the date hereof, and we disclaim any intention or obligation to update any forward-looking statements as a result of developments occurring after the date of this communication.
